Van Nuys, CA

The Department of Consumer Affairs and the Bureau of Barbering and Cosmetology will hold a public hearing to obtain information on important policy and operational issues facing the Bureau. Information obtained at the hearing will assist the Bureau as it prepares for Sunset Review Hearings before the Joint Legislative Sunset Review Committee. Members of the public are encouraged to attend.

Scheduled panel members:

- Kathleen Hamilton, Director, Department of Consumer Affairs
- Lynn Morris, Deputy Director for Board Relations
- James Goldstene, Chief, Bureau of Barbering and Cosmetology
- Terri Ciau, Chief, Special Programs Division

AGENDA

1. Welcome and Introductions
2. Overview of Sunset Review Purpose and Process
3. Public Comment - The panel would like to receive comments on policy and operations issues such as:
 - Is continued regulation of the industry necessary to protect the public health, safety and welfare?
 - How can the Bureau better protect consumers?
 - What emerging industry trends require action from the Bureau?
4. Close
